Run Away With You

Downie Strehl

Downie Strehl has been singing her entire life. Her passion for music has taken her through formal music training throughout her life and career performing in classical, pop, and jazz and she is a well-respected music/ vocal instructor both in the USA and Japan.

Her albums and music have been played internationally around the globe as well as winning awards in many countries. She has gained critical acclaim with her performances in places as varied as Tokyo, Japan and in Las Vegas with Grammy winning singer Crystal Gayle.

Her first two singles “Now” and “Unavailable” taken from her latest upcoming album have both charted in many territories around the world.

“Downie Strehl is one of the best singers and songwriters working along the margins of the modern music scene.” Vents Magazine - Lydia Hillenburg

“Downie Strehl is consistently redefining what vocal and songwriting excellence means in the modern indie country pop scene.” Gas house radio - Shannon Cowden

“Run Away With You,” is an important musical work that solidifies her standing as one of the best indie singer/songwriters working today”. Lance Wright - Band Blurb

“This is a performer who can transform any material into musical art” Joshua Stryde - Indie Music Reviews

“Her attentiveness as a singer remains one of her finest attributes....” Jason Hillenburg - Skopemag.com

Downie Strehl's, latest single, Run Away With You, from her upcoming album “Are You Ready” is released on 16 March 2017 by Tabitha Music Limited by Graham Sclater in the UK and Musik and Film by Stephen Wrench in the US and Europe.
